

Skin Therapist – Warrnambool, Victoria

20 – 38 hours per week. We are happy to be flexible for the right applicant.

CleanSkins is looking for a skin therapist with an awesome “I can fix skin attitude” to join our team. We’re looking for someone that gets excited when a client with acne, rosacea or any other skin condition walks in, because you know that you can change that client’s life by fixing their skin. If you’re the right person for this role, we can help you with further training and tools to succeed.

Minimum Requirements:

- ♥♥ Either currently holding or in the throes of completing a Cert IV in Beauty Therapy, Diploma of Beauty Therapy or Dermal Therapy qualification
- ♥♥ Has a strong knowledge base of skin, skin conditions and ingredients
- ♥♥ A passion and commitment for growth, delivering results and exceptional customer service to every client.
- ♥♥ Strong communication skills and the ability to create positive rapport with clients
- ♥♥ Excellent personal presentation
- ♥♥ Exceptional hygiene standards with attention to detail

Bonus Points:

- ♥♥♥ You have experience in Skin Needling, Laser Skin treatments
- ♥♥♥ You have experience with Dermaviduals, Jane Iredale

Your Role and Expectations:

The following covers our expectations of your role. Our standards are very high so if you’re not at the level required, we’ll train you to be. What’s required from you is the willingness and eagerness to learn high performance.

- As a skin therapist, your role is a specialist one and does not include performing beauty treatments such as waxing, nails etc. At CleanSkins, we’re made up of specialists in our industry

- Perform comprehensive skin consultations; analysing the skin to be able to write up a complete skin prescription of treatments and homecare for each client for meaningful and memorable results.
- Provide personalised skin treatments to CleanSkins clients with the objective of achieving skin results
- You create an educational experience with every client because you know that without clients understanding what they need to do, both results and client retention are limited

What You Can Expect From Us

- Working with a team that values long-term solutions over quick fixes and clear, glowing skin over enhancement treatments. We're a harmonious team who work hard, support each other and laugh....a lot
- Product and treatment modalities that are considered the best money can buy, designed to achieve extraordinary results
- Only work a maximum of 2 late nights (our version of late is 7pm so we value personal and family time)
- Short Saturdays are a must (8:45am to 2pm) and where and when possible, a Saturday off here and there
- Hours are guaranteed so you're never sent home if ever the books are quiet
- We aim to be the choice employer for Skin Therapists. We offer a competitive compensation package.
- No charge personal treatments and retail products at wholesale price
- Treatment times include retailing, upselling and flipping rooms time. We value quality over quantity so there's no one rushing around because of back-to-back unreasonable timing
- We expect you to plan your clients before they attend their appointment so 30 paid minutes is allocated at the beginning of every shift to do so

If you aspire to join the CleanSkins Team forward your resume and cover letter to; veronica@cleanskinslaserclinic.com.au OR drop your resume in at reception.

All resumes will be treated in the strictest of confidence.
